Madonna di Campiglio is a discreet and elegant town nestling at an altitude of 5085 feet in the extraordinary valley between the Brenta Dolomites and the glaciers of Adamello and Presanella. Today, it is one of the most popular ski resorts in Italy as well as a popular European ski resort. The variety of its mountain surroundings mean that in the winter it is possible to ski up to an altitude of 8530 feet with different degrees of difficulty. What's more, you can set out from the center of the town and return there from many other areas without ever removing your skis. The SuperSkiRama Ski Area can boast 150 lifts and 172 miles of ski runs ... with skiing for all levels.

Venice is one of the most visited cities in Italy and we will be staying in the Dorsoduro district - between the Zattere and Grand Canal, off the beaten track but only minutes from the enchanting Piazza San Marco and opposite to the Accademia Belle Arte.
